

SHOOTING AT FALCON OVER A GAME OF CRAPS.

LEWISPORT, Ky., Oct. 23, (Special.) Dave Jackson, a Tell City negro, was shot in the leg by Miner Pool, white, at Falcon Sunday.

The shooting was the result of a dispute over a game of craps. Jackson's injuries were at first thought to be slight, but symptoms of blood poison are said to have set in, and his condition is reported as critical.

WILL BEARD FOUND DEAD NEAR FALCON.

LEWISPORT, Ky., Oct. 23, (Special.) Will Beard, a young white man, was found dead by the side of the railroad track near Falcon Station, and about 5 miles above this city, last Saturday morning.

His skull was crushed and both legs were broken. A jug of wine was found near the body, and it is thought that while intoxicated, he fell asleep on the track, and was struck by a train sometime during the night.

Beard is said to have been an industrious young man, and save for an occasional spree, bore a good reputation.

DR. HARDIN'S VULCANIZER EXPLODES.

BRANDENBURG, Oct. 25, (Special.) One night last week, while Dr. Hardin, our popular dentist, was using his vulcanizer, it exploded making quite an opening in the roof of his office. Not a piece of the vulcanizer could be found. The lights were extinguished, Mr. McIntire was thrown from his chair and Dr. Hardin was stunned for a few minutes. Had it occurred a little sooner he would have been killed instantly. The accident will cost our good dentist about sixty dollars but he is philosophical; his life is spared and he doesn't murmur.

CASE CONTINUED.

LEWISPORT, Ky., Oct. 23, (Special.) Horace Patterson was called to Owensboro last week as a witness in the case of Mrs. Bewles vs. the L. H. & St. L. R. R. for injuries received while alighting from a train at Pate's Station. The case was continued until the next term of the Circuit Court.

one can not arguing for a low type, a sort of a universal man with a low head. However, Millet did not mean to paint degeneracy in his picture. He said of it, "I have tried to portray the animal getting off four legs. Behold I show him already on three. He shall yet be erect on two, and his face illumined by the sun shall be as God's face." The Millet of the future means progress. He is looking up, the man of the future. The picture is a good description of the commonplace that is simply looking forward and upward. That is an average good sort of human life. But to look down—never! The commonplace does nothing of the sort. It is a part of evolution. Everybody who is looking up can move along easily. But the man who is looking down—the down-lookers are another set, constituting the real mass. These are the undividualized, not like others, because un-

We arrived at Perbian Island, Africa, March the 8th. This seemed, I believe, the most desolate place on earth, the only thing to break the monotony of the surroundings, being a native with a camel climbing sand hills. Here we spent one day coaling, leaving on the 4th of March.

Hon. D. R. Murray, of Cliftonport, is billed to speak at Pierce's school house four miles south of town this Wednesday evening at 8.30 in the interest of the Music Hall ticket. Mr. Murray is a gifted orator and will no doubt be greeted with a large and appreciative audience.

It has occurred to me that if some of the correspondents of the county newspapers would pay more attention to the news of their respective localities and less to the political issues of the day it would add to the interest of their communications. Leave national politics to the Metropolitan dealers. Give them a chance, and if they don't handle such questions to your liking then jump onto them with both feet. No doubt such heroic measures would have a salutary effect, and would cause them to become entirely subservient to your wishes and views as regards politics.

The Owensboro Inquirer of Thursday contained an account of the arrest of J. E. Hayner, of Lewisport, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and also of defrauding the Roly House.

out of a bond bill amounting to $1.50.

According to the Inquirer, Gayner went to the Roly house on Saturday night of last week and secured his board on credit, saying he had $3.00 on deposit with Mr. John Davidson on whom he gave an order for $1.50, besides securing 50 cents from the clerk Mr. A. J. Upham.

When the order was presented to Davidson he refused to pay it saying he had no money belonging to Gayner. In the meantime Gayner had returned to Lewisport and the warrant was sent out for his arrest.

As Mr. Gayner is a hard working and honorable man it is but justice to him to give the real facts in this case. On the night stated Mr. Gayner went to the Roly house somewhat under the influence of liquor, and applied for lodging, which was given him. On the following morning he discovered that he was shy a watch and $25.00 in money. This fact he reported to the clerk Upham who was an old acquaintance, and, knowing that Gayner had been intoxicated the evening before, suggested that he might have given the valuables to some friend for safe keeping. Gayner replied that he might have given them to Mr. Davidson and on the strength of this supposition Upham volunteered to loan Gayner 50 cents which the latter promised to return to him when he reached home. Gayner then went to Davidson and learned that he had left no money with him. He then returned home, and was just in the act of turning the money to Upham when he was confronted with the warrant, Monday morning. Accompanied by Marshal Jones, Gayner went back to Owensboro, and the matter was brought up in Judge Sutherland's court, who after hearing the facts in the case promptly dismissed the defendant. Mr. Gayner naturally feels very sorry over the matter, and thinks the treatment he received at the hands of Upham was far from that which should have been accorded an old acquaintance and friend.

Have Returned.
